Navigator's Log

Sir Knights,

Things are happening. Where to start? I received an email from Rudy Escamilla concerning our plans for an anniversary event for St. Rafael on or about October 15th. That was news to me. After a few phone calls and visits, I have decided we should do something and on an annual basis. A Mass is planned along with a large picture of St. Rafael. Hopefully we can get Aqustin Mora, who is a grand nephew of the saint, to attend.

San Rafael Guizar y Valencia is the only saint who has a direct link to Texas Knights. He has lived in San Antonio and was present at the first installation of the first Archbishop in our diocese. He also ministered to the poor at Our Lady of Guadalupe in Austin.

Other news would be an August 22nd (8 am) turnout at the Hyatt Hill Country Holders of Truth Conference. This is a Mass with Bishop Gomez preceding. The District meeting will be at St. Helena on August 22nd at 10 am. There will be an Exemplification on October 31st at Hallesville. The next one planned locally is at holy Trinity on February 27th.

I expressed a little disappointment on learning this news. We have been trying to have our own hosting of an Exemplification. We will continue our endeavors in that area. Everyone's prayers are requested for Joe Moy who fell and hit his head. We pray for a speedy recovery. Hope to see you at our next meeting.

YBIC,

Captain's Corner

Sir Knights,

My first month in office and our Faithful Navigator has everything moving smoothly. Since my appointment to the post of Color Corps Commander, I have ordered the needed Regalia and it is in the process of being shipped from the English Company. The position of Faithful Captain carries with it the responsibility of activities for meetings and other events. I welcome any and all suggestions on programs that we can insert into the meetings to spice things up. One thing I would like to do before our first turn-out is to invite Manny Olague, the District Marshall, to come to a meeting and go through the changes and correct operating procedures with us. I've read up on the manual but clarification of some points would be beneficial so things can go smoothly from the first time on. I am excited with everything that is happening and am confident that this year will be successful one.

Fraternally,

Larry Zoller

Faithful Captain

Sir Knights,

I had every intention to have a full newsletter and get it out early. However, my work at St. Mark has almost doubled. I am doing the parish newsletter (which is one week late), the parish bulletin (which is changing format), the parish web site (which is changing its look and it is up to me to supervise it), the parish directory (which is due this Friday), and etc. My involvement with the Craft Show and Entertainment books with the 3rd Degree is also taking time. I apology for this one page. If someone would like to take over the Banner, I will be happy to help them out. It isn't fair to you that I am having time issues.
